20th October 2010

Dear Parents,

Where has the first half term gone? 7 weeks have simply flown by and I'm sure that you are all looking forward to the half-term break next week.

We are currently undertaking a number of assessments to evaluate your child's progress and are sure that you would welcome the opportunity to discuss their development with the class teacher.

Therefore we will be holding parental consultation meetings on 29th November and 2nd December.

We hope that all parents will take advantage of the opportunity to attend.

Additionally, in the place of an annual report in July, this year we will be issuing 3 shorter termly reports just before each parental consultation opportunity. We hope that you will find this change of benefit to further supporting your child's social, emotional and academic development.

If you have any questions or concerns about your child, please do not wait until parental consultations. Class teachers are always willing to see parents if they are available. Please speak to your child's class teacher directly, who will endeavour to see you as soon as possible at a mutually convenient time.

We would be grateful if you could complete the response slip below and return it to the school office via your child by 5th November. Please circle all of the times that you can attend, to make creating appointments easier. We will endeavour to accommodate your needs as far as possible.

I look forward to seeing you all at the meetings.

Kind Regards,

Miss Johnston
Headteacher
