

From all the staff and governors at Brighstone CE Aided Primary School

The teaching staff have spent the last half-term all learning musical instruments, proving that learning never stops! Yesterday afternoon, (with the help of Martin the brass teacher), we staged a Christmas Concert for the children. A great time was had by all! (Not pictured: Miss Saddington on percussion and Mrs Denness on piano). WELL DONE!!!