

ALL AT SEA BEACH FESTIVAL

JULY 4TH & 5TH, 2015

WHAT IS ALL AT SEA ?

Small Hope Beach, one of the Isle of Wight's most featured family beaches, will for the second year be staging the pioneering 2 day beach and ocean festival.

'All at Sea' introduced the Island's first ever Birdman Contest and Cardboard Boat Race, and both have been incredibly successful.

'All at Sea' is a throw back to true traditional family fun, being silly and all with good ol' fashioned British eccentricity.

With a huge media reach and an estimated event footfall of over 4000 'All at Sea' is an event that is certainly...making waves.
