Learning and Achieving Through Love,
Courage and Respect

Dear parents, carers and children,

Welcome back! I hope you managed to have a good half term, with chances to spend time with friends and family. One of the best bits of my job is to see everyone's smiling faces when I stand at the gate every morning. I also love leading Golden Worship and seeing the achievements for that week, as well as popping into classes to see all the great learning taking place. Often, when I'm sitting at my desk, a little face will appear in the doorway. This will be one of the children wanting to share some news with me, ask me a question, or show me some of their work. This always brightens up my day!

You will notice a few more little changes to the Cosy Cabin. Over half term, I framed some of the children's artwork that they gave me, and Mr Freeman, our caretaker, put them up on the walls (I have some spare frames for any further artwork from children, both created in school or at home). Mr Freeman has also put Perspex over the windows to make it a little bit cosier in there. A new sign for over the door is in the process of being designed and made, and once it is all finished, the EARA group will introduce it in assembly and we will have a grand opening. Watch this space!

We are currently collecting spare textiles, clothing etc... to help with the Syrian-Turkey earthquake appeal, through Astra Recycling. These will be collected separately; see the advert in this week's Buzz. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

At the beginning of the week, we all celebrated Shrove Tuesday. We held Hive pancake races (using rubber PE markers instead of pancakes for longevity purposes), and lots of fun was had by all! See photos on our Facebook page. This was followed by our Ash Wednesday service in St Mary's Church, which was led by Rev Jackie and Peter.

Children and adults had the option of receiving the ash cross on their foreheads, the Y6 SLT children said prayers, and we heard about the story of Lent, where Jesus was in the desert for 40 days and 40 nights. Thank you to Jackie and Peter, as well as the parents and grandparents, who came along. See photos on our Facebook page.

Yesterday, you will have received a letter about next week's planned NEU strike day on Thursday 2nd March. At the time of writing I don't have enough information to know if we will close, partially close or remain open for all classes, but I will of course let you know as soon as I am able to. I thank you for your understanding during this uncertainty.

This year, we will be holding our World Book Day on Friday 3rd March instead of Thursday 2nd, and the children were very excited to find out in Golden Worship this morning that we will be wearing pyjamas all day for our theme of 'Cosy Up With a Book'. This is in return for a donation to the charity. All children will also receive a £1 book token, and we will be holding a second hand book sale after school in the playground (donations from the book sale will go towards purchasing new books for the school library). See the email sent out yesterday, as well as the poster in this week's Buzz, for more information about the day itself.

Today, we held a one minute's silence to mark the first anniversary of the Russian invasion of Ukraine, and to pay tribute to the courage and bravery of our Ukrainian friends.

I hope you all have a lovely weekend, and I look forward to seeing you on Monday.

With best wishes, Mrs Lennon and the Brighstone Team

Collective Worship - Forgiveness

This week's Collective Worship theme is Forgiveness: Wiping the slate clean

Christians believe that when they say sorry to God for the wrong things they have done, He forgives them completely and gives them a new start, a clean slate.

What does forgiveness mean to you?

Have you ever had to forgive someone? Why?

Have you ever been forgiven for something that you did?

Teaspoon (TSP) Prayer

Dear Lord

Thank you that you offer forgiveness to all, through Jesus

Sorry for the times when we have been slow to say sorry to others or not quick enough to forgive

Please help us to ask for forgiveness when we make a mistake and to accept an apology kindly.

"Just as the Lord has forgiven you, so you must also forgive others."

Colossians 3.13

School Dinners

Children in Year R, 1 and 2 are entitled to a 'universal' free school meal everyday.

Grammar and Spelling Matters

Each week we will include a mini grammar or spelling lesson so you know what your children are learning!

Double negatives

A double negative is when two negative words appear in a single clause. Although the two negative words are usually intended to convey a single negative thought, in reality, one negative plus another negative equals a positive. If a clause includes two negative words, one of them should be removed.

"I didn't do nothing." X

There are two negatives in this sentence, so the resulting meaning is that he did do something.

"I didn't do anything." ✓ Or
 "I did nothing." ✓

“Supporting the mental health and wellbeing of young islanders and their families”

<https://www.iowyouthtrust.co.uk>

The Isle of Wight Youth Trust has recently been awarded the contract as the sole provider of under 18 counselling services by the Hampshire, Southampton and Isle of Wight Integrated Commissioning Board from April 2023.

This means the Talk 2 Counselling Service, currently provided by Barnardo’s, will be integrated into the services provided by the Isle of Wight Youth Trust.

Barnardo’s and the Isle of Wight Youth Trust have long worked together to deliver services to children, young people and families. We will continue to work closely together to ensure that the transition of the Talk 2 service to the Youth Trust has minimal impact on those who use both services. This process will take place during February and March 2023.

Young people, parents/carers and/or professionals can access help and support from their website.

News from the Classrooms

Ivy Bee class

Last half term, Ivy Bee Class had quite an Islamic focus to their work: in RE they explored the concept of "belonging", considering the physical and emotional ways in which they show how they belong to various groups and organisations, then comparing these to how Muslim children felt about their faith.

In Art, the class looked at Islamic art and architecture, while in History, they have been learning about the "House of Wisdom" - a library and university in ancient Baghdad whose scholars influenced scientists and doctors across Europe and the impact of their discoveries are still felt in the modern world today.

As a way of discovering and sharing information they learnt about, the class was challenged to a "balloon debate". What if all of the Islamic academics were in a faulty hot air balloon? Who would they save or discard to stop the balloon crashing? In groups, they wrote persuasive speeches explaining the key points about their scholar.

These were presented to both the class and our friend and guest Mr Bahar (who came to speak to us about Islam during Inter Faith Week). Once all the speeches had been heard, we had two rounds of voting and finally Al-Razi (an 8th century doctor who wrote over 200 books on medicine and set up hospitals in a way we would still recognise today,) presented by Caspar, Felicity and Lauren, was voted the overall winner.

After that, we shared our RE work with Mr Bahar and he happily answered our questions and filled in gaps within our knowledge. We asked him "How does he know he belongs to Islam?" He described how his faith made him feel included, protected and supported.

Mr Bahar thoroughly enjoyed his time in class with us and we really enjoyed talking and listening to him.

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED
Sunday
18th June

We have the opportunity to run the Tea/cake stall at the garden opening @ Northcourt. This is a great fundrasier for us, and we have raised over 1K before.

However, we know the date clashes with the festival.

If you can commit to helping run the teas on this date can you let the BSA know by 3rd March.

If we can not get enough helpers we will unfortunately have to turn down this opportunity.

Theme:
Cosy up
with a book

It's that time of the year again – time to celebrate the children's love of reading!

Here at Brighstone we will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday 3rd March 2023.

This year we will be sharing our favourite books by dressing in pyjamas for a day of sharing and enjoying stories. Reading together is a valuable, social experience, which boosts creativity and imagination, improves wellbeing and is a positive experience for everyone! Children may wish to bring their favourite bedtime book to share with a friend. Pyjamas, dressing gowns, snuggles and teddies are ALL welcome. Even slippers – but please remember to wear suitable shoes for outdoor play too!

We are very much looking forward to creating a nurturing space to share stories and celebrate World Book Day with our children, and would like to thank you in advance for your support.

WORLD

Sharing stories together

Children love spending time looking at books with adults. It makes a big difference to their futures to spend 10 minutes a day sharing a story. There are no right or wrong ways to read out loud but sometimes it can be tricky to know where to begin. Here are a few tips and ideas to get you started:

- I wonder...
Ask open questions about how characters are feeling or what might happen next or why things are in the illustration.
- Bring the book to life...
Make faces, use voices, include actions – have fun together!
- That reminds me of...
Make personal connections.
- What have you seen there?
Follow their interests.
- That's made me feel...
Let your child know how the events of the story have affected you.
- Oo look at that!
Let them know what you have noticed.
- Again, again...
Re-reading is a great source of comfort for children– and a chance to spot things that you didn't see first time round. Challenge yourself to spot something new each time.

This guide is based on the work of The Open University. For further tips and advice on how to enjoy sharing and reading stories together, visit their website here for helpful videos and resources.

Following our amazing March for Ukraine campaign last year, where your overwhelming generosity allowed us to send 15 tons of aid over to refugees; several schools have been in contact to ask if we are doing something similar for Turkey and Syria.

Due to logistics, we cannot send aid to Syria and Turkey in the form of clothing and food etc. Most charities are requesting donations of money.

We thought a possible way to help would be if your school could organise a one-off textile collection with a view to raise money for the Turkey/ Syria earthquake appeal?

You can donate extra bags clothing and we can organise a separate collection. Monies raised will be paid directly to the school/ site to donate to your chosen charity.

Collection will take place on Thursday 9th March, just over two weeks' time.

Your donations are greatly appreciated to help with worthy cause.
