Cosy up with a book

It's that time of the year again – time to celebrate the children's love of reading!

Here at Brighstone we will be celebrating World Book Day on Friday 3rd March 2023.

This year we will be sharing our favourite books by dressing in pyjamas for a day of sharing and enjoying stories. Reading together is a valuable, social experience, which boosts creativity and imagination, improves wellbeing and is a positive experience for everyone! Children may wish to bring their favourite bedtime book to share with a friend. Pyjamas, dressing gowns, snugglies and teddies are ALL welcome. Even slippers – but please remember to wear suitable shoes for outdoor play too!

We are very much looking forward to creating a nurturing space to share stories and celebrate World Book Day with our children, and would like to thank you in advance for your support.
