Learning and Achieving Through Love,
Courage and Respect

Dear parents, carers and children,

What a busy week this has been! On Tuesday, we were invaded by a whole lot of pirates who were off to Blackgang Chine. Bumble Bee class had a fantastic time there, exploring all the different areas and using their newly acquired map skills to find their way around. I am sure that they came home 'buzzing' with excitement!

KS2 were treated to a day of poetry workshops with Mr Peek the poet. The fun started with an assembly, during which Tony Peek entertained the children with his poems. Many were funny, some were poignant, and some were nostalgic. He then led workshops for Honey Bee class and Ivy Bee class. The day concluded with the children presenting some of their poems to each other and to parents. There were 'oohs' and 'ahhhs' and chuckles from the audience. I have included some of their poems in this Buzz. I am sure you will agree that they are all amazing. There were opportunities to buy Mr Peek's Poetry books at the end of the day. We have bought some copies for school, and you can also buy them on his website. Well done, KS2, and thank you to the BSA for paying for these workshops.

Last Saturday, some of our country dancers wowed the crowds with their wonderful display at Shorwell Midsummer Fair. They did us proud with their four dances, and they garnered some lovely feedback from members of the public. Thank you and well done to all who took part!

Yesterday, Mrs Sharp, Mrs Johnstone and I took our Y6 children to the Y6 Leavers' Service at Portsmouth Cathedral. They took part in a range of activities in the morning, before enjoying a service in the afternoon with lots of other island and mainland church schools in the Diocese. Our children demonstrated exemplary behaviour throughout the whole day, and were super ambassadors for our school. A huge well done to you all.

Today, the Fire Service visited Y2 and Y5 classes to talk about fire safety. They learnt about how to keep themselves safe around matches and other fire lighting equipment, and what to do if they see a fire.

Our village school is an integral part of the community, and it is so important that organisations and charities support each other. Mrs Boyd and I, along with the librarians, have been sorting out the library over the past few months, and we donated many books (too many to count!) to the Oxfam shop and to the National Trust, who will be selling them in the second-hand bookshop at Mottistone Manor, which is a valuable source of income for the charity. Both charities are very grateful for these donations. On the subject of donations, Brighstone FC donated an amazing £850 to go towards our PE and Sports equipment, which is absolutely fantastic! A huge thank you to you all.

Mrs Sharp would like to thank everyone who turned up to the Beetle Drive evening. Great fun was had by all and £130 was raised to support Explorer Scouts in the West Wight who will be attending the World Scout Jamboree in South Korea this summer. Well done to the Beavers who ran the raffle as it will help them earn their "Money" badge.

I wish you all a lovely weekend, and I look forward to seeing you on Monday. Best wishes, Mrs Lennon and the Brighstone team

Collective Worship - Respect

This week's Collective Worship theme is Respect—valuing others as we would like to be valued

We looked at this mosaic called 'The Golden Rule', which was presented to the United Nations in 1985 and now hangs in the UN Headquarters in New York. It depicts a wonderful mix of people from different nations standing together with the words:

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Matthew 7.12

All the countries that belong to the UN have agreed that they will try to live by The Golden Rule in the way they treat other countries and their own citizens. Sometimes following The Golden Rule means that we have to make difficult choices between doing what would most please ourselves, and respecting and serving others. We listened to different scenarios and discussed what the char-

Prayer of St Francis of Assisi

Lord, make me an instrument of your peace;
Where there is hatred, let me sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy.
O divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console;
To be understood, as to understand;
To be loved, as to love;
For it is in giving that we receive,
It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
And it is in dying that we are born to Eternal Life.
Amen

"Do unto others as you would have them do unto you."

Matthew 7.12

Poetry Corner

On Tuesday, Mr Peek visited our school to carry out poetry workshops with KS2. Some of the children's poems are included later in this Buzz, and here are some of Mr Peek's poems:

Frosty Cold

When the weather's
Frosty cold
No-one does
What they've been told.
So all the teachers
Scream and shout
And put their gloves on
Inside out.
But
When the weather's
Warm and hot
Then no-one does
What they should not.
So all the teachers
Smile instead
And put their knickers
On their head!

Grammar and Spelling Matters

Each week we will include a mini grammar or spelling lesson so you know what your children are learning!

Punctuation: inverted commas

When you are writing, inverted commas (speech marks) go before and after direct speech, or quotations, surrounding what was said.

Rules for using inverted commas for speech

Inverted commas must only be placed around the actual spoken words.
A capital letter is used after the first inverted comma.

Which one of these sentences is punctuated correctly? Discuss.

1. "Where is my pen? asked Zachary."
2. "Where is my pen?" asked Zachary.
3. "where is my pen?" asked Zachary.

The coast breeze is cold.

Grass sways in the wind.

Especially with good mates
Then we all go home.

Clearest water in the world
The best beach I know.

With striped beach huts all around
Clear waters and tall chalk cliffs.

My home forever.
