Learning and Achieving Through Love,
Courage and Respect

Dear parents, carers and children,

As part of the National Year of Reading: Go All In campaign, I have introduced a new page dedicated to this. See p6 of this week's Buzz.

I always enjoy popping into the classrooms to see what the children are up to. It was lovely to see some great teamwork in Flower Bees, when some children were doing a jigsaw puzzle together. They were really looking carefully at the pictures and colours on each piece to see if they fitted: "There's one with a little bit of moon on it!" "That one's got some duvet on it" and so on. Fantastic!

I also saw some great teamwork in Honey Bee class when they were drafting their rhyming couplets. Not only did they have to make the lines rhyme, but they were also considering the rhythm and the use of effective vocabulary. They certainly rose to the challenge, and produced some amazing poems, working independently while also helping each other where needed. Well done, Honey Bee class.

When I popped into Ivy Bee class, it was great to see the effective vocabulary being used when editing their narrative pieces for The Man Who Walked Between The Towers. They were considering which words and phrases would be most effective and where they could be placed in the sentence, and then thinking about how to insert direct speech to move the narrative on. Great work, Ivy Bee class!

As I walked to open the gate on Tuesday morning, I was intrigued to see a trail of sand leading across the playground and along the path. I was very curious as to how it got there and why it was there. All was revealed later on when Bumble Bee class excitedly told me that it was Sunny the meerkat, who was visiting from the Kalahari desert and must have brought some of the desert sand with him!

Class news

"WHAT A DAY we had in Bumble Bee Class on Tuesday! Sunny the Meerkat came to visit and we had THE BEST TIME! The children had already planned the day out for Sunny and took turns to complete different activities with him. They made soooo many presents for Sunny, including a lunch box, paintings and a bed to sleep (on the plane) in. Some of the children found some real sand from the Kalahari Desert! Others went hunting for his friends, as they knew Meerkats travel in groups/gangs and so his family might be about. It was such an exciting day and the children did us proud, showing Sunny a day in the life of Brighstone CE Primary :)" Miss Sztypuljak

"Some of the Flower Bees are really excited to write by themselves now. Olive wrote a book including a page about her holiday. Molly wrote a label for her big dog and Bodhi showed me that he could spell mud (and form the letters really well too)." Mrs Cousins

Reminders

Hair accessories and socks must be in the school colours. Water bottles must only contain water.

I hope everyone has a lovely weekend.

With best wishes, Mrs Lennon and the Brighstone team

Collective Worship

This half term, the theme is People Jesus Meets. This week, we have been learning about John the Baptist. Our value this week is hope.

Have you ever been to a baptism or christening? Have you been baptised or christened? Sometimes a baptism can happen around a font in a church. Sometimes older people are baptised in a pool in the church and sometimes in a river, like the River Jordan here.

Two thousand years ago, John the Baptist, who was Jesus' cousin, baptised lots of people in the River Jordan. One of the people he baptised was Jesus himself.

Why had people come to John to be baptised?

How did the people who were watching Jesus being baptised know that they were witnessing a very special moment?

What emotions do you think the people on the banks of the river felt as they watched?

Why did John think that it should be Jesus baptising him?

Lord Jesus,
We are sorry for anything that we have said
or done
that may have hurt others.
Give us hope for the future by washing away what is past.
Fill us with your power to live in a way that is pleasing to you and loving towards others.
Amen

Inclusion

Welcome to our inclusion section! Each week, we will be sharing a Makaton sign and Widgit symbol, to help with our inclusive ethos.

Waiting at the Window

These are my two drops of rain Waiting on the window-pane. I am waiting here to see Which the winning one will be. Both of them have different names. One is John and one is James. All the best and all the worst Comes from which of them is first. James has just begun to ooze. He's the one I want to lose. John is waiting to begin. He's the one I want to win. James is going slowly on. Something sort of sticks to John. John is moving off at last. James is going pretty fast.	John is rushing down the pane. James is going slow again. James has met a sort of smear. John is getting very near. Is he going fast enough? (James has found a piece of fluff.) John has quickly hurried by. (James was talking to a fly.) John is there, and John has won! Look! I told you! Here's the sun!

Reading Recommendations

Each week, we include a book recommendation from a child and/or adult.

This week, Quinn recommends Scared to Death by Anthony Horowitz.

It's a book that has 10 short sinister stories and it's really good. I have read four of them and I'm really looking forward to reading the rest. They are about things that go wrong, vampires and the supernatural. Out of the four I have read, my favourite one was 'You Have Arrived' which is about two thugs in a stolen car on a one-way ticket to hell. This is my favourite because it's really creepy and really funny.

Attendance Matters!

Week Commencing 19th January
(Whole school attendance target: 96.5%)
Actual Attendance: 94.27%
Late marks this week: 5

Golden Book

Flower Bee	Ella, Evan, Theo, Otis and Rae for practising their target speed sounds every day.
Bumble Bee	Lexi for sharing and demonstrating what she has learnt in Music, at home. Florence for always putting 100% into every challenge asked of her in lessons and busy bee time. She has produced some super artwork and writing this week, especially for Sunny the meerkat. Arthur for showing such enthusiasm and independence when drawing and writing out what he'd like to do with Sunny the Meerkat. Forbes for spotting a large muddy mark on one of our book corner armchairs (not caused by him) and taking the time to clean it up during his own busy bee time. This showed such kindness and was hugely appreciated.
Honey Bee	Poppy for her hard work and conscientious attitude , particularly in spelling and times table work this week. Holly for her super engagement with our poetry writing work and enthusiastic contributions to our class discussions.
Ivy Bee	Martha for her systematic approach to understanding new Maths learning. Allina for her clear explanations and good understanding in Maths.
Bee-Haviour	Jacob for showing such kindness towards others every day, especially this week. Jacob saw that a member of the class was upset at the end of the day and knew he could cheer her up, even though it would mean he'd miss out on his turn with Sunny the Meerkat.
Sports Bee	Freya for always being ready to learn, putting 100% effort into lessons and working well on her own, in pairs and in groups.

Focus on Attendance

With the children, we discussed how regular attendance helps them:

- Make strong progress in their learning, as learning builds day by day
- Feel confident, independent and part of their class community
- Build friendships and support their wellbeing
- Develop positive routines and life skills such as punctuality and responsibility
- Build strong habits that support success now and in the future

We talked to the children about what “regular attendance” means and the many benefits it brings. We also reminded them that we understand illness does happen, and if a child has a temperature, or if it could be an infection, then they need to stay at home and rest until they are better or the risk of infecting others has passed. However, it is often those days when children feel a little unsure or reluctant at first, but are able to push through and come into school, that can make a real difference. As always, if a child is not well enough to be in school, we will contact families and ensure they are sent home to rest.

To help celebrate and encourage good attendance, we also introduced a whole school campaign for this term:

Be an attendance HERO (Here Everyday Ready On time)!

- For each full week of attendance, children will earn an entry into a draw - this gives children the opportunity to have up to 11 entries in the draw this term
- At the end of the term, one lucky winner will be chosen to receive a grand prize

We appreciate that there can sometimes be challenges, and we encourage families to speak to us if there are any worries or barriers to attendance, we are always here to help.

Thank you for your continued support in helping every child have the best chance to learn, grow and succeed.

Proud to support
The National Year of Reading 2026.

IN.

The National Year of Reading: Go All In campaign is an exciting initiative designed to inspire a love of reading and encourage everyone to fully immerse themselves in books and stories. By promoting reading for pleasure, sharing a wide range of texts, and celebrating reading in all its forms, the campaign aims to boost confidence, creativity, and comprehension. Go All In encourages children to explore new genres, take risks with their reading choices, and develop lifelong reading habits that support learning across the curriculum and beyond. Reading is essential for developing language, imagination, and understanding of the world. It supports children's vocabulary, comprehension, and communication skills, while also helping to build concentration and confidence. Regular reading encourages curiosity, empathy, and creativity, and lays a strong foundation for success across all areas of learning and throughout life.

Reading doesn't just mean books. It includes stories, ideas and information in print, digital and audio – from graphic novels and lyrics to articles, podcasts and games.

We are always encouraging reading for pleasure, and we will plan some events throughout the year as part of this national campaign. We welcome and value your support in this. Watch this space!

We were delighted to receive this from Alice, William and family! It looks like you had a lovely, relaxing afternoon.

"Inspired by the Year of Reading after seeing it in the Buzz on Friday we packed our books in our van when we took it out for the day last weekend instead of iPads, and the four of us had a lovely relaxing afternoon reading; long may it continue! Looking forward to seeing what events will come out of this campaign."

We look forward to seeing what other reading activities everyone gets up to. Please do send them in !

At lunchtime today, it was lovely to see some of the older children reading to the younger children in the sunshine.
